No. 263-LS

Kolkata the 4th March, 2014

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS it has been made to appear to the Governor that a monitoring mechanism is required for effectively monitoring the court cases;

AND WHEREAS it has been further made to appear to the Governor that for effectively monitoring the court cases, it is necessary to obtain information in respect of, and to represent in, such cases in time;

NOW, THEREFORE, the Governor is pleased hereby to establish, with immediate effect, a Cell, called "High Court Cases Monitoring Cell", under the Law Department,—

- (a) to streamline, rationalise and organise the process of—
 - (i) receipt at the office of the Ld. Government Pleader, High Court at Calcutta of copies of Writ Petitions, Memoranda of Appeal and all other documents relating to the court cases of Appellate Side of the High Court at Calcutta; and
 - (ii) appointment of the Ld. State Advocates in those cases;
- (b) to co-ordinate and communicate with the State Respondents and the Ld. State Advocates in those cases and bridge the communication gap, if any, between them;
- (c) to maintain the database of those documents and cases;
- (d) to monitor compliance, whenever necessary, of orders and directions of the High Court at Calcutta in those cases;
- (e) to streamline, rationalise and organise the process of making payment of fees and other moneys to the Ld. State Advocates in those cases; and

- (f) to operate and maintain the web portal called SARTHAC (Systemised Administration & Regulation of Tendering and Handling of All Court Cases) for those cases.

This Resolution is issued with the approval dated 24.02.2014 of the Hon'ble Chief Minister as a Cabinet mention case.

By order of the Governor,

MALAY MARUT BANERJEE,
Secretary to the Govt. of West Bengal,
Law Department.
